Foreword

Hertfordshire's Plan for Children and Young People presents more detail about the priorities for children, young people and their families outlined in Hertfordshire County Council's Corporate Plan.

Part of the vision for Hertfordshire is to give every child, young person and their family the opportunity to live happy and fulfilling lives. This is underpinned by four ambitions which shape the work of the whole County Council, the: Opportunity to Thrive; Opportunity to Prosper; Opportunity to be Healthy and Safe; and Opportunity to Take Part. More specifically, the County Council in its role as a Corporate Parent for those children and young people who are in care or recently left care is committed to ensuring they feel safe, well cared for and supported to achieve their full potential.

These ambitions define the work of Children's Services. The Service is part of the Hertfordshire system working for the benefit of children, young people, their families and communities. We are supported by other departments within the County Council and partners such as the local district and borough councils, the health service, schools, police and the voluntary and community sector. Partnership working is essential in delivering effective services to all communities across Hertfordshire.

To achieve the Hertfordshire vision and ambitions for children, young people and their families, the County Council will work in a way that:

- Is open, honest and ethical;
- Identifies and addresses issues early;
- Values diversity, addresses inequality and supports the most vulnerable;

• Encourages commercial thinking and embraces digital opportunities to deliver services even more innovatively.

High quality schools and settings in Hertfordshire provide a high level of teaching from an early age which equip our children and young people for the future whatever their aspirations. However, whilst Hertfordshire is indeed a 'county of opportunity' for many, for some families and communities faced with generational issues and special educational needs and disabilities, accessing those opportunities is often hard to achieve.

This three year plan will build on what we are already doing well, it will evolve and develop our policies, procedures and the way that we work, but will target our resources on those children, young people and families that really need our help and guidance. The County Council is committed to ensuring that no child, family or community is left behind. In particular it is committed to meeting its statutory duties to protect children and young people effectively.

Financial pressures across the public sector; an increase in demography; the improvement of health care leading to the survival rate of children with complex medical conditions; an increase in the number of children with recognized complex behavioural difficulties; and an increase in the number of children and young people affected by intergenerational and societal pressures are placing extraordinary demands on Children's Services. As a result, we are continually searching for new and innovative ways to deliver services to our communities to ensure we deliver the best services we can with the funding we have available.

Key Hertfordshire Facts

Vision

Prevention is at the heart of all that we do. It is the basis of the Families First approach which focuses on providing support as problems emerge so families become more resilient and the challenges they face do not escalate. By helping families to sustain improvements, demand for more costly support is reduced. Success is dependent on partners and communities working effectively together to deliver early help to families, minimising the impact on the lives of children, the family and the communities around them. Our Family Safeguarding programme has changed the way child protection services are delivered leading to positive changes for families in terms of reducing crime, substance misuse, neglect, and health improvements and increasing attendance at school which in turn will be reflected in reduced demand on public services and a better prepared and skilled workforce across Hertfordshire.

To keep us focused on supporting families in a way that makes a positive difference to their lives, we are continuing to develop mechanisms to ensure we can evidence what works, share the learning across the services and develop and support our workforce to provide effective support to families. For example, Children's Services has developed a new Outcomes Framework, known as the 'Six Outcome Bees' http://www.hertfordshire.gov.uk/outcomebees to enable us to assess and evidence our impact. This framework has been developed with the involvement of young people and partner organisations to ensure those things which are most important things to young people are identified and our performance against these are measured. The outcomes are inter-linked with all the 'bees' being important for the child or young person. Each outcome area means many different things depending on the individual or family we are working with. This framework enables us to set clear and measurable targets across the six domains that are agreed with service users, their families and our partners.

Hertfordshire is developing services in co-production with young people, families, carers and partner organisations to provide services which meet the needs of our communities and provide value for money in a time of scarce resources. The voice of children, young people and families spans our work as feedback is gathered about the services they receive and trained young commissioners are involved in the specification of services being commissioned.

Young people involved in 'Take Over Day' in November 2017 were asked what they consider are the two most important things to help them to live a happy and fulfilling life. Whilst these differ according to each young person, friends, family and being supported were commonly recurring themes. Hertfordshire relies on a skilled and dedicated workforce within the County Council, partner organisations and on staff and volunteers within the Voluntary and Community Sector. Together we will continue to work to improve all the outcomes for children, young people and families within Hertfordshire.

Strategic Focus

- Hertfordshire is striving for continuous improvement to provide the right support in the right place at the right time. Hertfordshire's Plan for Children and Young People over the next three years is driven by a number of key strategies and approaches which are dependent on integrated multi-agency work with partners taking a holistic approach to meet the needs of families and improve outcomes for children and young people, these include:
- A co-produced Education, Skills & Training Strategy will encompass school improvement and SEND priorities within schools and further education settings. The aim of partners in the education sector is to raise aspirations for all children and young people, enhance opportunities into higher education, training and employment by closing the gap in attainment and inspire young people to develop the skills to flourish in the workplace in their future lives.
- The Skills Strategy aims to increase and develop Hertfordshire's workforce to ensure we can support a strong economy within which businesses can thrive, whilst enabling all residents of Hertfordshire to maximise their own individual potential and share in Hertfordshire's prosperity.

- The Health & Wellbeing Strategy aims to tackle health inequalities to make life better for everyone living in Hertfordshire with priorities based on the four life stages of Starting Well, Developing Well, Living and Working Well and Ageing Well. The strategy will shape the commissioning of services across the health and care system to develop more detailed action plans to improve the health and wellbeing of people who live and work in Hertfordshire. The importance of mental health and emotional wellbeing for children and young people, their parents and carers is reflected in the development and implementation of the Mental Health and Wellbeing Transformation Plan for children and young people in Hertfordshire.
- The focus of the Families First Strategy is early help and prevention. The needs of vulnerable children, young people and their families are identified at the earliest opportunity, are well assessed and met by families and agencies working effectively together. Improved and sustainable outcomes are achieved through building a family's resilience to, and increasing their capacity to manage, challenging circumstances.

- Keeping young people safe in their community, or contextual safeguarding, is an increasing priority in Hertfordshire. This means protecting children and young people who are at risk because of factors outside of their family, such as child sexual exploitation, increasing levels of violence or gangs and the threats posed by radicalisation. A key focus for partners working together is to develop resilient communities where children and young people feel safe and part of a supportive community.
- The 0-25 Integrated SEND Commissioning Strategy brings together SEND commissioning activity across the health and social care partnership to develop a more integrated approach with other services including Integrated Services for Learning, Early Help Services, Early Years Services, Learning and Housing support and Adult Care Services. The strategy reflects Hertfordshire's commitment to transform our support for children and young people with SEND to improve their journey from childhood into adulthood by increasing inclusivity and equity and reducing marginalisation thereby enabling young adults to have more fulfilled lives through better planning and preparation. The focus is to give families access to a wider range of support, self-directed wherever possible and deliver a more joined up response so that families receive a single, personalised, coherent offer of support.

- Family Safeguarding is a wholesystem approach within Children's Services to improve the quality of work undertaken with families, and thereby outcomes for children and parents. It brings together a partnership including the police, health (including mental health), probation and substance misuse services to tackle issues of domestic abuse, substance misuse and mental health within families.
- When children and young ٠ people come into care our CLA Strategy outlines our commitment to creating opportunities for our looked after children, young people and care leavers to reach their potential and have created a shared vision to promote positive outcomes. As Corporate Parents we want our looked after children to be given the same positive childhood experiences and opportunities that any parent would wish for their own child.
- These key areas of focus are reflected in Hertfordshire's Outcome Bees framework.
